In addition, the Recipient is required to give the Ministry and its contractors or auditors access to all of its records if necessary to review, inspect, investigate, monitor and audit the Recipient's performance of its obligations under the agreement with the Ministry.

Any personal information collected indirectly from the Recipient shall become part of your apprenticeship file and shall be used by the Ministry to administer and finance Ontario's apprenticeship system (the "system"). You may be contacted to request your voluntary participation in surveys and public relations campaigns related to the system. The Ministry may use the services of the Ministry of Government Services for payment and collections matters and may use contractors, auditors or other third party administrators to administer and finance the system.

Administration includes assessing and verifying your eligibility for your program; registering your apprentice agreement; providing or facilitating financial assistance to you and training delivery providers; processing your fees, issuing receipts and collecting overpayments; ensuring that you receive appropriate training; evaluating, monitoring and auditing your progress in your training and the activities of your employer, sponsor and training institution; enforcing your agreements with the Ministry and the legislation set out below; enforcing the agreements between the Ministry and your employer, sponsor and training institution; conducting inspections and investigations; detecting, monitoring and preventing fraud; and conducting policy analysis, evaluation and research related to all aspects of Employment Ontario programs and services, including apprenticeship training.

Financing includes planning, arranging or providing funding of the system.

The Ministry may disclose your personal information to:

- Ontario College of Trades, if necessary for the Ontario College of Trades to carry out its responsibilities;
- Ministry of Labour to enforce workplace health and safety;
- Ministry of Transportation to conduct investigations and enforce the provisions of the Highway Traffic Act relating to motor vehicle inspection mechanics; and
- Statistics Canada, if required under s. 13 of the Statistics Act, R. S. 1985, c. S-19, as amended.

The Ministry may disclose your apprenticeship contract or training agreement to any of your employers who need it for purposes of applying for the Apprenticeship Training Tax Credit s. 89 of the Taxation Act, 2007, S.O. 2007, c. 11, Sched. A.

The system is funded by the Ministry, in part with funds provided by Canada under Part II of the Employment Insurance Act. Under the Labour Market Development Agreement between Canada and Ontario (LMDA), the Ministry is required to collect your social insurance number to provide reports to Canada to allow it to monitor and assess the Employment Insurance Program as required under s. 3 of the Employment Insurance Act.
